

Eating Disorder Intuitive Therapy (EDIT)TM Certified Counselors

INDEPENDENT CONTRACTOR OPPORTUNITY

Are you licensed as a LPCC, LPC, LCSW or PhD Clinical Psychologist?

Are you a certified as a CAC II, CAC III, LAC and/or trained/certified in EFT or EMDR?

Do you have experience in the treatment of eating disorders, addiction and/or trauma?

Do you want to work independently yet be a part of a team with support to build your caseload?

If you answered YES to the above questions, then you are invited to apply to join our treatment team at Positive Pathways – a group practice which specializes in the outpatient treatment of eating disorders. We are excited to be expanding our services, to include the treatment of substance use disorders, as well as enhanced treatment for trauma healing.

The Independent Contractor must be registered with DORA, carry their own professional liability insurance, and become certified in Eating Disorder Intuitive Therapy (EDIT)TM – the primary treatment method used at Positive Pathways. Requirements also include excellent written and verbal communication skills; conducting phone screening, intake and assessment sessions; providing individual, couples and family sessions; leading support groups, therapy groups and workshops; developing treatment plans and ongoing treatment evaluation; maintaining accurate records of client sessions; attendance at monthly group practice meetings; maintenance of cooperative working relationships with other team members; promotion of services of Positive Pathways through networking activities; active interest in growing caseload through own marketing efforts; commitment to professional development through attendance at conferences and other CEU opportunities. Experience with social media, blog writing, public speaking, milieu therapy, intensive outpatient programs (IOP), and group curriculum development a plus.

The Independent Contractor will set their own schedule and fees, with assistance to build a caseload, and office space provided to meet with clients at the Positive Pathways location in the Cherry Creek area of Denver. Office supplies, profile listing on the Positive Pathways website, and some administrative support will also be provided. Client session fees will be collected through Positive Pathways, and a percentage of these fees will be paid to the Independent Contractor on a monthly basis (the percentage depends on level of training, and how much supervision is required).

The Independent Contractor will be directly supervised by Dr. Dorie McCubbrey, MEd, PhD, LPC, CEDS – a Certified Eating Disorder Specialist and Owner/Clinical Director of Positive Pathways.
